

Saint Alphonsus Anticoagulation Clinic – Providers and Staff

Angela McWilliams, Pharm.D.

Angela graduated from the University of Montana Pharmacy School in 2001 and has been with the Saint Alphonsus Anticoagulation Clinic since 2010. Before moving to Meridian with her husband and 2 kids in 2010, she worked at the Billings Clinic Anticoagulation Clinic in her hometown of Billings, Montana. In her free time, she enjoys crafting, scrapbooking, traveling, and spending time with her family, friends & loyal dog, Scout.

Jason Dalling, Pharm.D.

Jason graduated in 2006 from Idaho State University College of Pharmacy and has been with the Saint Alphonsus Anticoagulation Clinic since 2013. He loves taking adventures with his family, snowboarding, running, traveling, and anything outdoors.

Suzette Cooper, Pharm.D.

Suzette joined Saint Alphonsus in 2007. She is a graduate of the University of Illinois College of Pharmacy in Chicago and completed a pharmacy residency with the USPHS Indian Health Service in Whiteriver, Arizona. She and her husband, David, have a daughter. In her free time, Suzette enjoys gardening, hiking, and travelling with family.

Robert Drewett, Pharm.D.

Robert graduated from the Oregon State University College of Pharmacy in 2005, and has been working at the Saint Alphonsus Anticoagulation Clinic since 2009. Prior to becoming a pharmacist, Robert was a chemical engineer in the Great Lakes state of Michigan. In his free time, Robert enjoys travelling and playing disc golf with his family.

Danise Mink – Anticoagulation Assistant

Danise handles the operations of the clinic – managing referrals, scheduling, supplies, and keeping everything running smoothly.
