

Local and Regional Breast Pump Distributors

All insurance companies are required to cover a breast pump to new mothers. However, each provider has their own requirements and parameters. For example, some providers will issue a pump during pregnancy while other providers won't issue a pump until after your baby is born. It is important to call your insurance provider to find out these details.

Norco      208-888-0202

In store pick up or hospital delivery

Provides to most insurance carriers: Spectra S1 and S2, and the Medela Pump in Style Max Flow

Provides for Medicaid: Spectra S2

Provides Medela Symphony hospital grade pump for rent. Call for more information.

JMM Infinite Solutions    208-724-4262      BreastPumps123.com

Free shipping in 3-5 days and local delivery options available for qualifying addresses.

Provides to all moms regardless of insurance carriers: Spectra S2, Medela Pump in Style Max Flow, Ameda Mya Joy, Zomee Z2, Lansinoh Smart Pump

National Medical Solutions      208-377-1881

Has a store front with their offered pumps on display; their rep will take care of obtaining the pump Rx and verifying insurance.

Provides to all moms regardless of insurance carriers: Spectra S2, Medela Pump in Style Max Flow, Ameda Mya Joy Plus, Zomee Z2 and Zomee Fit (wearable and fully covered by insurance)

Also provides Ameda Pearl hospital grade pump for rent. Call for more information.

Aeroflow Health 888-345-1780 aeroflowhealth.com

Online platform only.

Provides a large selection of breast pumps, with varying levels of coverage. Shipping times will vary.