Notes

Would you like to get a better understanding for proper office ergonomics? Did you know there are six simple assessment areas at your workstation? In this class, you will learn some quick fix ideas to make proper adjustments or corrections at your workspace, with your movement, with the lighting in the area, and with eye discomfort.

Attend Online

Dial-in numbers, meeting IDs, and access codes are sometimes shown in advance by clicking the button. Some web meeting systems may require software to be installed.
